Supplementary Figure 1. Spatial frequency fractal stimulus and its Fourier features. As described in the text, the stimulus (left panel) was created using a Perlin noise algorithm. The stimulus has statistics that are similar to natural images, as depicted by the amplitude spectrum of the image (right panel).