Fig. S1. Schema illustrating the time course of the commands sent to the LED for a gap presented at the beginning of a saccade (20% of the smear length). In both conditions, the main command is sent to the LED at the online saccade detection. Additionally in the mask condition, a command was sent to turn the LED on at the go signal of the saccade.